cutlog is a contemporary art fair in the heart of Paris, situated under the 1000 m² dome of the Bourse du Commerce, 100 metres from the Cour Carrée du Louvre, between Beaubourg (Centre Pompidou), Concorde (Jeu de Paume museum) and the Grand Palais. Both an alternative and a complement to current Parisian and international art fairs, cutlog is a vibrant intersection for artists, collectors, galleries, curators and museum directors worldwide. The 30 to 40 galleries chosen will be independent and emerging ones and / or galleries that support emerging artists from across the country and around the globe. cutlog will welcome a large number of private collectors and prestigious institutions, both national and international.

A professional jury will award a prize to the fair's most surprising artist, plus an invitation to exhibit personally at cutlog 2010.

A personalised welcome to collectors and professionals will be set up by cutlog during the fair. Every 15 minutes, cutlog will provide a Mercedes shuttle service to and from the Grand Palais, the Cour Carrée of the Louvre and the Bourse du Commerce.

In association with our main partner, Mercedes, the staff of The International Institute of Concierges will be available to drive galleries clients from their hotel to cutlog. The galleries present during the 2009 edition will benefit from privileged rates in the partner hotels of cutlog.
